VOL. II.

WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, MARCH 13, 1862.

NO. 92.

CLAIMS AGAINST THE UNITED STATES
FINLEY BIGGERS, late Register of the U. S. Treasury, and C. L. HARRIS, E. SHERMAN, Government lawyers, will devote their entire attention to the prosecution and settlement of demands against the United States, growing out of the war, including the claims and Grievances of States, Contractors, and Disbursing Officers, applications for the restoration of property illegally seized or captured by the Government, and for damages for the injury of such property by the same; for military pay, pensions, and bounty laws, and for compensation for services rendered at the Treasury and due to sub-contractors and others.

They will also give legal advice to claimants, contractors, and other war-time agents when desired.

With Non-resident Agents who may send them claims, an equitable division of commissions will be made.

Undisputed Demands will be collected and promptly remitted for a commission of from a half to one and a half per cent—depending on the amount—and will be settled with the Department on moderate terms.

By prompt attention, immediate claim, long experience, and knowledge of the law and precedents governing this class of business at the Department, they hope to render their services useful to claimants and public.

Reference may be made to Members of Congress, and officers of the Government, and especially to the Hon. ELIJAH WHITNEY, Find Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

TO THE OFFICERS OF THE ARMY.

Just arrived a direct importation from Paris, a very fine and large export sample of which I will sell a very little above the cost in Paris. As to the qualities, there are none equal to it. It has, having been selected purposely for the market, a very fine flavor, and is equal to the best Ghee, Butter, Gold, silver, and steel Sundries and fine Glasses, suited to the light by the use of an ordinary A. C. scale number of one thousand, two hundred and one, which will be sent with every article, from a house which have been rated at my old establishment.
